SETTLEMENT OF MUNICIPAL ACCOUNT ARREARS

REVENUE ENHANCEMENT CAMPAIGN

Ratepayers who's Municipal Consumer Accounts are in arrears for a period of over 30 days are requested to make payment or enter into settlement agreement with the municipality. Any queries on the accounts, should be formerly lodged with the municipality (Revenue Management Division). We also would like to extent our gratitude to ratepayers who have consistently paid their municipal accounts even under difficult economic conditions such covid19 pandemic.

- Paying your municipal account enables the municipality to render quality basic services in your own locality.
- Maintenance of infrastructure depends on the revenue collection by the municipality. It therefore becomes imperative for the consumers to pay for services to enable the municipality maintain infrastructure at all times
- Proper road infrastructure, well-functioning streets and traffic lights, regular refuse collection, a cleaner town, well maintained parks & sidewalks, are a possibility through consumers paying for municipal accounts.

Ratepayers are encouraged to visit Credit Control Section and see Mr Jerry Mashigo at Room G35, ext. 9452 or Mr Tshepiso Piroe, Room G33, ext. 9169 to make necessary arrangements. For any enquiry, kindly contact the Manager: Revenue Management, Mr Herman Mothiana on ext 9475, or Manager: Revenue Enhancement, Ms LJ Phasha on ext 9267.
